

LibriVox.org

The Female Quixote
Vol. II
Charlotte Lennox

THE FEMALE QUIXOTE VOL. II

This is the second volume of the novel that formally inverts Don Quixote: as the don mistakes himself for the knightly hero of a Romance, so Arabella mistakes herself for the maiden love of a Romance. While the don thinks it his duty to praise the platonically pure damsels he meets (such as the woman he loves), so Arabella believes it is in her power to kill with a look and it is the duty of her lovers to suffer ordeals on her behalf.

Total running time: 8:10:22

Read by Jesse Noar, Mary Herndon Bell, Jojo Ross, Neeru Iyer, Mimi Wang, vanrose, Diana Majlinger, Amy Gramour

Book Coordinator: Barry Eads
Meta-Coordinator: Barry Eads

Proof-Listeners: Stav Nisser & Barry Eads

THE FEMALE QUIXOTE Vol. II

LibriVox.org

On the cover: Specimen of a Portrait by James Joseph Jacques Tissot

Cover Design by Neeru Iyer